

Cemetery History

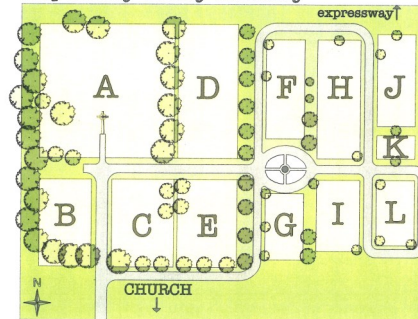

Holy Trinity Parish purchased six acres of land in January 1866, 0.8 acre was designated as land to start Holy Trinity Cemetery. The first burial was 36-year-old Elizabeth Miller in February 1867. Bishop McQuaid consecrated our cemetery on October 25, 1870.

Expansions, primarily through donated land, occurring in 1927, 1966 and finally in 2001 have allowed the cemetery to grow to over 7 acres. Currently, there are over 2,000 Holy Trinity parishioners and their family members buried here with approximately 700 plots available.

Holy Trinity Cemetery Mission Statement

We are Holy Trinity's Catholic Faith Cemetery Committee blessed with the joy of God's love. In conjunction with the Diocese of Rochester, we are committed to prepare and maintain an environment appropriate for the burial rites of the Church and for peaceful visitation and prayer for our parishioners honoring their deceased family members and friends.

Celtic Cross

The Celtic Cross was placed in 1899 while Fr. Joseph Miller was pastor.

Blessing of the Graves

Our annual blessing of the graves is in mid-September. All are welcome to join in this beautiful ceremony to pay tribute to those who have gone before us.
