

Repent, and believe in the Gospel

Very soon, a wonderful season in the Church will begin again: Lent. I say “again” because year after year the Roman Catholic Church insists on repentance, conversion, to see God face-to-face, and to ask Him to forgive our sins. But, why does the Church say this again and again, year after year? Why does the Church always invite us to prayer, fasting, almsgiving, penance, sacrifice, conversion? How many times have we heard about this in the sanctuary through the preaching of many priests? Once? Twice? Three times? Thirty times? Fifty times? Eighty times? One hundred times?... In my case, I have heard about this forty-three times, because that is how old I am.

The answer to these questions is very simple, and sometimes we do not pay enough attention. The Church is inviting us year after year to think about all of these because she is thinking about our salvation. If you and I belong to the Roman Catholic Church, go to the Eucharist, practice the sacraments, it is not because we do not have anything else to do, but because we want to go to the Kingdom of God, that means to gain eternal life.

We need to think about our salvation; hence, all the elements that the Church is introducing us, such as fasting, penance, almsgiving, sacrifice, service, etc., are tools that help us to think how we can be closer to God, surrender to Him, and reach eternal life. If we do not think about our salvation and eternal life, our faith does not make sense. I do not go to Church because I have nothing interesting to do or because my mom, dad, child, or friends are there, but because I want to have a closer encounter with Christ.

Thus, not only during this Lenten season, but all the days of our lives that we should pray and celebrate the sacraments, such as the sacraments of Eucharist and Penance (confession or reconciliation). Let us serve one another and let us allow our love for Christ to be reflected in our service to our neighbors. Through this love and service, we gain salvation and eternal life.

May this Lenten season lead us to have a special encounter with Christ to get to the house of our Heavenly Father.

So, when we go to Church this coming Ash Wednesday, which is the beginning of this great season, let us think about the words that our priest or lay people say at the moment we receive ashes on our forehead: “Repent, and believe in the Gospel,” or “Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return.” Both sentences should, once again, make us to think about our salvation. Why will we go to receive ashes this coming Wednesday? Will I receive because of tradition, or because I really want to change my life? May this Ash Wednesday help us to think about our spiritual life, change many aspects in our lives, and prepare ourselves to go to the house of our heavenly Father.

God bless you, and may the Blessed Virgin Mary be with you always!
Fr. Jorge Ramirez

FROM THE FATIH FORMATION OFFICE

Ash Wednesday (February 14, 2024) marks the beginning of Lent, one of the Church's most important seasons in the liturgical year. Beginning this Wednesday, it will last forty days (not including Sundays)...which reflects how long Christ spent praying and fasting in the desert. The Sundays of this season are all special, and the last one known as Passion (or Palm) Sunday will begin Holy Week.

Not only is Lent a time of preparation for the great feast of Easter, but it is also a time to consider Christ's gift of himself to each one of us and the ways in which we can model that amazing love in our own lives and families. Can we create a space in our home that becomes a visual reminder of this Lenten season? Can we spend some time reading the Bible? Will you give up something special to you or, perhaps, make the extra effort to reach out to others to assist them or to be kind. Let us be mindful of our thoughts and actions this season so that we may share the "Light of Christ."

As a family, share with each other how you each mirrored Christ's light in your day with love. Jesus displayed the greatest love when he died on the cross for our sins. May God bless your families on your Lenten journey.
